The mere announcement of the forthcoming "New Method," by Charles Grobe, created an excitement throughout the country that has never been equaled in the world of music. We have received orders for ten thousand copies in advance of its publication; a tolerable evidence, we think, of the popularity of the author. By common consent of the musical public, Mr. Grobe is now first in rank of musical writers in this country. His supremacy has been recognized a long time ago, and won for him the general applause both of teachers and pupils, which is never awarded but to the rarest talents and accomplishments. He has that flexibility of mind which is the guarantee of continued improvement; his power deepens and strengthens with exercise. In every form of music in which he has made experiments there is none in which he has not succeeded. No one who has ever perused the productions of this pleasing and instructive author, need be informed of the beauty and elegance that pervade his writings, as they are evident and unmistakeable.

Mr. Grobe, however, is so well known that any remarks here as to his qualifications would be superfluous. Suffice it, that he has produced in his "New Method" a work for elementary teaching—superior to any in existence. It is eminently the book for the people, and cannot too strongly be recommended. It is the result of the ripe experience of its author, and invaluable to teachers and pupils. The pupil is led by easy and pleasant means gradually and certain to the desired end. Nothing is anticipated, nothing hurried. The dryness so often complained of in works of instruction is altogether avoided. It is the most simple, clear, progressive, and judicious system of instruction extant; its study will be rather pleasure than work for the pupil. It is extremely practical; none better for beginners. The theoretical instructions do not precede the practical portion of the work as in other books, but are combined therewith. The work contains ten engraved figures, illustrating the different positions of the hands and fingers; also, the pronunciation of many Italian words used in music.

It is impossible to read the instructive preface of this excellent method without an earnest desire to peruse the whole volume. Page after page it will be perused with feelings of admiration. In many respects this book is different from all others meant for teaching, and marks a new era in the art.

Take, however, no man's opinion, but give this "New Method" a fair and impartial trial, and we have no doubt that it will be pronounced the very best book for its purposes ever issued; and that it will be introduced into every school and family where a book suited to all tastes and capacities is required.

The typographical appearance of this volume deserves particular attention. Clear and distinct type, beautiful paper, well executed illustrations, and elegant binding are too unusual rarities in a musical work not to deserve the highest praise.

We conclude with the firm conviction that this "Method" must and ought to meet with that success, which, after all, is the only one that will equally please author and publishers—the success that is testified to by the purse of the public—the only tangible and certain critic that is liable to no mistakes.

Copies will be sent by mail, free of postage, on the receipt of the marked price. It can be obtained in large or small quantities of music dealers and booksellers generally throughout the United States and Canadas.
